

10 Essential Questions to Ask Before Partnering with a Global Team

A quick vetting guide for solopreneurs scaling smart

1. What are their strengths-and are they stronger than mine in that area?
2. Have they worked with businesses like mine before?
3. How do they handle communication across time zones?
4. Do they align with my brand's tone, culture, and expectations?
5. What are their red flag responses to feedback or change requests?
6. What systems or tools will we use to stay in sync?
7. Can we start with a smaller, testable project?
8. How will we handle payments, timelines, and deliverables?
9. What happens if things go wrong?
10. Do I trust them to make my life easier, not harder?
